In the absence of Rev. T. C. O'Dell, Rev. E. B. Tarrant preached at the Methodist church last Sunday morning. There were no services in the church at night. Mrs. H. J. Ritter died at her home near Kearse last Sunday. She had been sick for some time, and her death was not unexpected. She leaves a husband and several children. Calico 4c. per yard at S. S. Karesh. There is not a subscriber to THE HERALD who is in arrears but can pay up something on his indebtedness, and we earnestly hope every one to do so, as we need every cent due us. THE HERALD'S phone number is thirteen, which is also the book store number. Ring us up when you are in want of news or need anything in job printing, books, or stationery. Three cakes toilet soap ten cents, at Huggins's. Send in your items of news when they are fresh. We don't like to publish a birth after the child is weaned, a marriage after the honeymoon is over, or a death after the widow or widower is married again. Bargains at Byrd's in clothing, shoes, and hats. Don't forget Spann's special sale next Monday. This is a great opportunity to buy goods at greatly reduced prices, and every person in Bamberg county ought to take advantage of it. Bamberg, the reductions hold good for ten days only. Beautiful albums and toilet cases, all prices at Brooker's. Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. A. C. Reynolds and Miss Julia Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Jennings. The happy event will take place Tuesday, November 12th, at 10 o'clock, a. m., at the home of the bride in this city. Go to J. A. Byrd's for stylish dress frocks. There will be a cake walk at the skating rink hall to-morrow evening, which will be the most entertaining occasion cake walk held here for some time. The cakes will be served after the walk. Admission, ten cents, and the proceeds for a charitable purpose. There was a very pleasant and enjoyable musical at the home of Mr. W. G. Smith, Wednesday night of last week. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. O'Dell, Miss Nellie Evans, Maggie Kirkley, and Lola Rice, and Messrs. R. B. Smith, S. H. Cole, and E. R. Rainey, all of Denmark.

Do you need a nice album? Go to Brooker's. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Jones have the sincere sympathy of all in the death of their only child, a girl, Gladys, who died last Friday morning about 3 o'clock. The little one was taken sick Thursday. The interment took place at the cemetery Friday afternoon, and the services were conducted by Rev. T. C. O'Dell. If you want your money's worth, go to Byrd's. No shoddy stuff sold to any one. Rev. Wm. Haynsworth preached at the Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening. A collection for the aged ministers fund was taken up at the services. Haynsworth delivered interesting discourses on both occasions. He spent part of Monday here, returning to his home at Denmark Monday afternoon. Wedding and birthday presents, a magnificent assortment, at Brooker's. Last Monday night the rain fell in torrents, the wind blew, and it was as dark as Egypt. Where, oh where was the lamp lighter? Not even the public lamps on Main street were lighted. If the lamps were not to be lighted when we need them, what do you suppose we should do? Their use is discontinued, and the money they now cost is spent for something of benefit. WANTED—First-class beef cattle on hoof. Will pay best prices. Mr. L. Sells fell into the large ditch near Mr. Murphy's house last Monday night, it being so dark he could not see where he was going. It is wonderful that he was not killed, but he was not at all injured by the fall. Our council should discontinue the use of the street lamps or have them lighted on dark nights. What is the use of having lamps if they are not lighted when we need them most? T. C. Rouis is no agent for spectacles, but is personally interested in the sooner largest houses in the West, and can suit you with any style of glass you may want. Senator S. G. Mayfield, who is heavily interested in the Denmark Flouring Mill, was in town Monday. The mill is now working to its full capacity, manufacturing flour of a most excellent grade. We South Carolina farmers should raise all our bread stuffs. Next year I intend to plant wheat very heavily. If cotton brings a good price, I'll be all right. If it don't, why I'll not be all wrong. Have your measure taken at Byrd's for a tailor-made suit. Nice line of samples, and Moye CAN FIT YOU. Bamberg's full page advertisement last week attracted local attention. It is a business man's success is due in a great measure to the judicious use of printer's ink. The time is past when a business can get along without advertising, and the sooner our business men recognize it, the better it will be for them and the community. They would do well to follow Bamberg's example.

Try those excellent jams at Huggins's.

Remember the funniest of all funny entertainments—the cake walk—at the skating rink hall to-morrow night. Wife-some and harmless fruit juices to drink and eat with cake at Huggins's. Treasurer Dickinson started out yesterday to keep his appointments over the county for the collection of taxes. A child can buy goods at J. A. Byrd's as cheap as grown folks. Mr. T. H. Jackson and family, who have been living at Ehrhardt for the past two years, will move back to Bamberg this week. Another lot of fine plush capes just received at S. S. Karesh. Mr. W. W. Stewart, who was principal of the Elmore high school, has resigned, to accept a pleasant position in the paymaster's office at the Port Royal naval station. Butter fresh from the creamery at Huggins's. Next Monday is salesday, there is some valuable property to be sold, and there will no doubt be a large crowd in town. Don't forget to come in and pay what you owe THE HERALD. A full line of notions, and as cheap as anywhere. It is probable that the city council at its meeting next Tuesday will adopt an ordinance requiring merchants to keep goods off the sidewalks. A good move, and one that is badly needed. A full line of skirts, worsteds and silks, just received at S. S. Karesh. An exchange says it won't do to judge a man by the clothes he wears. The man who wears a fine suit and a top hat, with his trousers, dilapidated and worn out shoes, may be the editor of your town paper, while the man with the patent leather shoes, a flashy tie, newly pressed suit of clothes and a fine car may simply be one of his delinquent subscribers. The Cotton Market. Cotton is selling to-day at 7 to 7 1/2c. Receipts of the week 350 bales. Prisoners in Jail. Sheriff Hunter's quota of boarders is increasing. He has now the following prisoners in jail awaiting trial at the December term of court, all of whom are negroes: Joe Allen Copeland—larceny. Bosc Hampton—cow stealing. Henry Crum—murder. This case is the killing of Cornelius Wroton at a negro frolic near Denmark. Henry Hartzog is also in jail as accessory to the killing. New Advertisements. D. J. DELK. He has just opened his carriage and buggy factory, next to Bamberg's stables. With new machinery and first-class workmen, he is prepared to give full satisfaction. LAND FOR SALE. See the many valuable plantations Mr. J. F. O'Neal advertises in this issue. They are for sale cheap, and on the best kind of terms. Now is the time to buy you a home. Many Want Offices. The death of Mr. J. M. Dickinson last Saturday created a vacancy in the office of Magistrate here, and bright and early Monday many candidates went to hustling for the place. We were not aware before this that this office was such a desirable one, but the multiplicity of applicants makes us think it must be a pretty fat job. Seven or eight have already announced themselves, among them being H. S. Dowling, Esq., Messrs. J. Walter Free, H. A. R. H. J. Free, W. W. Lightsey, M. B. Varn, T. S. Weeks, J. Q. Adams, and others whose names we failed to learn. We understand there are some secret candidates. Our legislative delegation seems timid about shouldering the responsibility of appointing the appointee to Gov. McSwain, and are, we understand, in favor of a primary. This plan will hardly be adopted, as many of our citizens are opposed to it. The office should not stay vacant any longer than is absolutely necessary, and the governor should make a speedy appointment. Joseph M. Dickinson. Last Saturday morning at about 12 o'clock, Mr. J. M. Dickinson died suddenly at the home of his father in this city. He had been sick for some time, but had improved sufficiently to come down town several times, and was up around the house a short while before his death. The cause of his death was heart disease, brought about by a wound received several years ago. He was shot by a negro, the bullet grazing the heart, and he had never been a well man since. The body was interred in the family burying ground at Buford's Bridge last Sunday, and the last solemn rites were conducted by Rev. T. C. O'Dell. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: W. M. Brabham, W. E. Spann, E. C. Hays, G. Frank Bamberg, R. L. Risher, L. C. Price. Mr. Dickinson was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dickinson, and was born at the old homestead at Buford's Bridge. He was thirty-seven years old at the time of his death. He was married to Miss Virie Grimes, but she had been dead for several years. He had made his home with his father's family since her death, and leaves two children, a boy and girl. Mr. Dickinson had held the position of Magistrate here for the past few years, and seemed to give satisfaction. He had many friends who regret his departure. Peace to his ashes. Teachers' Examination. The following averages were made by the following teachers, who attended the summer school last July, and stood at the final examination: Miss Clara E. Riley, 95 1-10; L. A. Bickle, 98 8-10; G. O. Barker, 91; J. H. Rowell, 89 9-10; Miss J. Murphy, 95 4-10; J. W. Black, 88 8-10; J. Crum Smoak, 85 8-10; P. K. Rhoad, 85; Miss Nellie McMillan, 95 1-10; T. J. Beatz, 89; D. P. Smith, 91; Miss Florrie Brabham, 95 1-10. We have not been able as yet to get the result of the examination for teachers held Friday, October 13th, but the county board of examiners have not yet made a report. The Flashing Eye, Buoyant Foot-step and Rony Complexion result from the use of Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine. Sold by Dr. J. B. Black.

Married.

Mr. J. R. Owens, Sr., of Charleston, and Miss Sallie Rice, of this city, were married last Monday afternoon at four o'clock, at the residence of Mr. C. J. S. Brooker, Rev. J. A. B. Scherer, of Charleston, performing the ceremony. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. The couple left on the 5:30 train for Charleston, their future home. Union Meeting. The third division of the Barnwell Baptist Association met at Midway last Saturday, with a good attendance of delegates. There were no preachers present, but the laymen took great interest in the meeting, and many instructive discussions were had. Capt. J. B. Hunter was chosen moderator, and J. H. Rowell clerk. The following delegates were present, representing the churches named: Bamberg—J. T. O'Neal, J. H. Rowell. Bethesda—G. W. Beard. Hunter's Chapel—J. B. Hunter, D. O. Steedly. Springtown—Clifton Sandifer. Midway—George Dukes, Joseph Dukes, A. R. Dempsey. Colston—J. B. All, G. H. All. The usual committees were appointed, after which the topic of "Christian Education" was discussed by Messrs. J. T. O'Neal, T. D. Williams, J. H. Rowell, and J. B. Hunter. "Church Discipline" was discussed by Messrs. Williams, O'Neal, Dempsey, and Hunter. "Distinctive Doctrines of Baptists" was the next subject, and Messrs. Williams, Hunter, and Steedly took part in its discussion. The committee on time and place of next meeting decided to meet at Edisto church on the fifth Sunday in December. On Sunday morning Capt. J. B. Hunter delivered a Sunday-school address, after which a school was organized. A barrel of syrup was contributed to the Connie Maxwell Orphanage by those present. The people of Midway were hospitable to the delegates, and took care of their visitors in handsome style. Fitting School Dots. The students of the Fitting School were made glad by the announcement on Thursday morning of last week that Gen. F. M. Bamberg had given the Fitting School a set of apparatus for a gymnasium. The announcement was the occasion of great applause. The students have all signed a vote of thanks to Gen. Bamberg for his worthy gift. In a few weeks we hope therefore to have the room formerly occupied by the primary department in handsome trim for physical culture. The apparatus has been ordered from A. G. Spaulding & Bros. and their name is a guarantee that every piece will be of high grade. The young men and young ladies will be required to take a course in physical culture when the apparatus is in shape for use. The school was pleased to have Rev. H. B. Brown present recently at chapel exercises. He spoke briefly of the necessity for earnest, faithful work on the part of each student. Education was largely a matter of personal effort. Rev. T. C. O'Dell has paid us several calls of late. We appreciate his coming. The Sheridan Society at their last meeting debated the subject of the higher education of woman. Their debate was quite interesting and instructive. Both the Sheridan and Kilgo Societies are doing excellent work, and are quite flourishing in members. Students Posey and Gleaton have recently paid a flying visit to their homes and perhaps to somebody else's home. There is no place like home, if it is the home of one's best girl and the old folks are willing. The poet was perhaps inspired to sing of sweet home when he found it hard to leave the enchanted home of his lady love. Why is Dewey like a college student? I don't know unless it is because he pays a visit home and to his lady love at the same time. MAJESTER. Dots from Denmark. Mr. S. A. Hand is at home for a few days. He reports good business in the district over which he travels. Messrs. E. F. Free and Tom Pate visited the county seat Tuesday. Judge B. W. Miley, Jno. R. Bellinger, Esq., and Messrs. D. H. Counts and Mack Ray, of Bamberg, were in town Tuesday. Mr. L. J. Hartzog, of Govan, was in town Tuesday. Mr. R. L. Peterson, who got hurt some time since, is able to be out again. Mr. C. C. Ellzey went down to Charleston Tuesday on a business trip. Mr. M. I. Krawchek paid a visit to your city Tuesday. Mr. J. T. O'Neal, of Bamberg, was in town Friday. Misses Minnie and Carrie Sandifer, of Lees, were in town Friday. Dr. Keislar, of Rockwell, is a visitor in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hand. Mr. Oscar Atterberry, of Blackville, was in town Saturday. Mr. T. J. Simmons spent Sunday at the old homestead with his parents. Mr. O. A. Simmons and Miss Gabriella Miller were in town Sunday. Mr. L. N. Bellinger was in town Tuesday. Magistrate LaFitte is kept busy these days. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Smoak and daughter, Chessie, of Lees, were in town Wednesday. Sons of Rest. The "Sons of Rest" is the name of a club of youths in Bristol, England. One of the members was recently arrested for the theft of an umbrella, and during the trial the secretary of the organization admitted that the "Sons of Rest" had solemnly bound themselves together not to work until they should be 18 years of age. We have a similar organization in Bamberg. About the only difference is that the members of the Bamberg association have resolved never to work at all and they don't. Bismarck's Iron Nerve. Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c at Thos Black's and Bamberg Pharmacy. Dr. Henry J. Schenck, who has just completed his twelfth year as dog constable of Boston, has put to death over 10,000 unlicensed dogs during his term of office. He gets $1 for each dog he kills; but his expenses are large, and the profit does not amount to much. WANTED—Several bright and honest persons to represent us as Managers in this and close by counties. Salary $300 a year and expenses. Straight, bona-fide, no more, no less. Position permanent. Our references, any bank in any town. It is strictly office work, conducted at home. Reference. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. THE DOMINION COMPANY, Dept. 3, Chicago.

Buford's Bridge Breezes.

It will continue until Sunday. The Kearse school opened Monday, the 30th ult., with Mr. Wade Miley in charge. Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others, Why Not You? My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well.—ADOLPH L. Trial Justice Calhoun Breland held court here last Saturday. The Carter-Padgett case was not settled; Judge Allen Copeland was sent to jail to await higher court in the case brought against him by Mr. Scott Breland. Harts creek, in the outskirts of town, was the scene of much disorder last Saturday evening between a fussy woman and her drunken husband. "Is the duty of every citizen to report such to our marshal.
